

LETTER OF INTENT TO ESTABLISH ASEAN SCHOOL OF BUSINESS NETWORK (ASBN)

“ASEAN School of Business Network (ASBN) Establishment Declaration”

We, the undersigned university representatives, declare our intention to collaborate on the ASEAN School of Business Network (ASBN). ASBN platform aims to address international collaboration matters by leveraging our collective expertise, resources, and networks.

ASBN Cofounder Members:

- Universitas Islam Indonesia
- Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia
- Rangsit University
- Eastern Visayas State University

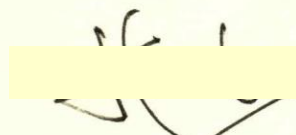

The overarching goal of the collaboration is as follows:

- Strengthening and developing long-term mutual benefits in the field of business education and research.
- Facilitating the exchange of knowledge and information through various academic activities, including but not limited to: faculty members, students and staff exchange, dual or double degree programs, joint research, lecture series programs, international conferences, seminars, trainings, and other projects.

By signing this establishment declaration, we commit to collaborate in ASBN reciprocally.

November 30th, 2023

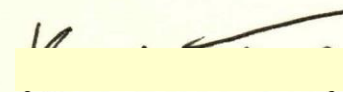

Universitas Islam Indonesia

Arif Hartono, S.E., M.Ec., Ph.D.

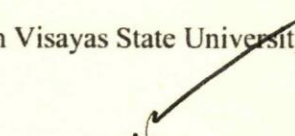

Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia

Assoc. Prof. Fuadah Johari, Ph.D.

Rangsit University

Assoc. Prof. Kanitsorn Terdpapong, Ph.D.

Eastern Visayas State University

Dennis C. de Paz, Ph.D.